

HOW TO USE THE PETAL FAIRY PEN PAL SET

OPTION 1

Print the 10 pen pal sheets twice. Once for your child in your troop and second one for the girl they will be writing to. You will mail a blank one with your girls responses. Then print the Petal Fairy Law cards that are included print two sets of these as well. One to give your girl and other to mail to the girl they are writing to. You could laminate them to make them stronger. The girl starting the communication is the one mailing the fairy cards. Which is noted at the bottom of each pen pal paper. After every law is filled out and mailed give your girl that Petal Fairy Law card and then the girl receiving the letter will write back her responses while also collecting a Petal Fairy Law card.

OPTION 2

Have both parties(troops/girls) print one set of pen pal sheets and the Petal Fairy Law cards. Both girls write to each other at same time and mail the collector cards with maybe an additional note to each other on back. Again allowing for both girls to collect the 10 fairy cards.

WITH EITHER OPTION

Girls can continue this back and forth through the 10 laws. Learning more about each other while also collecting the 10 Petal Fairy Law cards. After collecting them all they will have these as a reminder to live by the Girl Scout Law. They could continue being a pen pal or find another troop and do it again being a sister to every Girl Scout. They could also be used for games teaching your girls the law. There are many variations, use your imagination. My hope is that these worksheets will make having a pen pal even more fun and educational.

BREAKDOWN OF PEN PAL SHEET

Each time a girl writes their pen pal they will share a little about themselves first within the top 3 boxes

These are a few of my favorite things: Food: _____ Game: _____ Color: _____ Animal: _____	My name is _____ I am _____ years old. I have been in Girl Scouts for _____ years.	When I grow up i want to:
---	--	---------------------------

The bottom section of the sheet the girl writing will share how she is living by that particular law by answering two questions.
